

R. Who?

WHO IS RODRIGO SOUZA.

Rodrigo Souza is a musician and music producer from Brazil. He work in these areas from over 18 years. His main style are Blues-Rock. Both genres create the foundation of his constant learning and creation process. He holds a degree in Worship and Technical Arts from Dallas-TX (USA) and Music Production from Berklee (Coursera).

As an artist he released in 2019 his first EP, Down The River, released worldwide by Spotify, and other streaming platforms. Rodrigo Souza has often participated in music festivals, receiving good reviews from critics and audiences. His single, My Dream, produced and recorded in his studio, has been for months as one of the most popular 'Top 5' Blues-style songs on 'Placo MP3', Brazil's largest independent music platform.

Down the River shows a new artist form blues-rock in Brazil. There are three heavy rock songs and one ballad. The album opens with 'Mountain Top', a heavy rock blues. Then follows the title track from the album 'Down the River', with more rocky vibe. 'Train to Paradise' brings a blusy atmosphere with modern feeling. The EP is closed with the ballad My Mistake.

The electric guitars and acoustic guitar were recorded by Rodrigo Souza, as well the main voices. The musician also recorded some bass lines and backing vocals. The drums was played by Caio Riberti. Some basses were recorded by Alexandre Siqueira. Rodolfo Rechia composed the keyboards and pianos. All the material was captured in a recording room in the city of Itapira-SP, artists hometown in Brazil. Souza was responsible for editing, mixing and mastering the album.

With thew EP he wanna present himself to the world, and show with deep lyrics and intense instrumentation a new artist from Brazil. Listen the four tracks certainly is not a waste of time. Please, do not wait for pop!
